

Rebecca Grappo, M.Ed, C.E.P.

Certified Educational Planner
Professional member of IECA, HECA, NACAC
International ACAC, NATSAP

Rebecca Grappo founded RNG International Educational Consultants, LLC in 2007 to help international families navigate the challenges of raising their families overseas and amidst global transitions. Through her work with the US diplomatic service, international schools, and 30-year career working with expat families, she is known as an expert on Third Culture Kids and educating global nomads. Rebecca has lived in ten countries and raised her own three children between the US and their own international assignments.

E: rebecca@rnginternational.com

O: 720-627-6940

Media: rnginternational.com/media

Credentials and education

Certified Educational Planner,
American Institute of Certified Educational Planners
Certificate in College Counseling, UCLA
Masters in Education
BA in International Studies
BA in German

Interviews

Expat Focus
Association of American Foreign Service Worldwide
LA Talk Radio
I-Student Global

Speaker topics

Third Culture Kids - information for parents, students, and educators
Building Resilience in Expat Kids
Learning differences
Mental Health
ADHD and Anxiety
Boarding school options
US College Applications

Speaker and Media

US Department of State
Foreign Service Institute - Transition Center
Foreign Service Youth Foundation
The World Bank
The International Monetary Fund
American School of Dubai
Dubai American Academy
The American International School of Muscat
The American British Academy - Muscat, Oman
American Women's Group - Oman
American Women's Group - Dubai
Anglo-American School of Sofia - Bulgaria
Independent Educational Consultants Association
International Association of College Admissions
Counselors
The Association of Boarding Schools
International School Counselors Association
Families in Global Transition
American Foreign Service Association

Testimonials

Thank you so much for your time and willingness to present on our call yesterday. WOW—I so very much appreciated the personal touch that you brought to your presentation—you had many of us in tears. Your thoughts on resilience and self-care were really helpful. Thank you, thank you!